

The Daily Courant.

Monday, September 18. 1721.

London, September 18.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from France, and Yesterday one from Flanders.

Rome, August 26.

THE Grand Duke of Tuscany sent hither some Days ago the Cross of the Order of St. Stephen to Don Mario Antonio Conti, the Pope's Nephew. The Grand Master of Malta sent also that of the Religion to Don Carlo Conti; but 'tis believed he will not wear it till he possesses some Commandry. Don Camillo Gibo, Patriarch of Constantinople, Auditor-General of the Apostolical Chamber, was likewise made Knight of Malta on the 19th Instant. Sig. Falconieri, Governour of this City, had a sharp Contest the last Week with Donna Scaglione, concerning a Prisoner protected by that Lady, and for whom she has since obtained the Pope's Pardon. The Abbé Conti, and the Constable Colonna, had also a Dispute some Days ago concerning Precedency. The latter has presented a Memorial to his Holiness, and in the mean time refrains from going to Court. Father Galois, formerly Assistant General of the Augustines, and Prior of the Grand Convent of Paris, died suddenly in this City on the 23d at Night. The late Queen of Sweden's fine Pictures are preparing to be sent away for Paris; they were formerly in the City of Mantua, and seized by General Gallas at the Time he surprized that City; he carried them into Prague in Bohemia, where they were seized upon a second Time by the great Gustavus Adolphus, this Queen's Father. The Queen caused them to be brought hither at the Time she fixt her Residence in this City. Upon her Death, Don Livio Odeschachi purchased them of her Executors: The Duke of Bracciano inherited them after the Death of the latter, and now the Duke of Orleans has bought them, in order to be hung up in his Closet.

Turis, Aug. 26. It is reported, that the Abbé del Marais is to go shortly to Lisbon, with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from this Court, and to conduct the Infanta Donna Francesca, the King of Portugal's Sister, into this Country. But others give out, that there are yet some Difficulties which impede the Conclusion of that Match; that great Pains are taken at the Court of Rome to get them removed, as likewise the Differences between this Court and the Holy See. It is also said, that the King of Sardinia has newly taken into his Service 6000 Foreign Troops, and that a War in Italy begins to be apprehended.

Berlin, Aug. 29. The Duke of Mecklenberg has sent hither one M. Zulaw, an Adjutant General, with Letters for the King of Prussia, wherein he paints in a very lively Manner the Calamities his Country labours under, and desires his Majesty's Advice on the Situation of his Affairs, with his good Offices and Assistance for extricating him out of the Difficulties he is in: The King has returned an Answer in Writing, exhorting the Duke, in very serious Terms, to submit to the Emperor's Mandates, and to accommodate Matters with the Nobility: And to leave him no room to flatter himself with any Hopes of Assistance, he has signified to him plainly, that as long as he continues averse to this, he will be far from giving him any Aid, and will not so much as employ his good Offices in his Behalf. Major General Montargues and M. Herold, who were appointed to assist on the Part of this Court in the Commission for terminating the Differences with M. Bernsdorff, set out from hence last Week for Lentren. Velt-Marshal Fleming's late Negotiation at this Court is said to regard a Regulation of the Frontier Disputes, and to open the Commerce between Saxony and this Country with respect to Wool, Corn, Wood, &c. which had been before very much cramped by a Duty of 25 per cent, which both Courts has laid on each others Merchandize; he likewise signed a Convention, whereby the Saxons relinquished their Claim to the new Duty they had raised by way of Reprizal on the Boats laden with Salt coming from Hall and Magdeburg.

Vienne, Sept. 6. As soon as Count Kinsky, the Emperor's Ambassador, was returned hither from Rome, he waited upon his Imperial Majesty, to report the Success of his Transactions at the Pope's Court; and was admitted the next Day to an Audience of the Emperor on the same Occasion. It is said, that the Emperor has signed the Reduction of some Regiments, and that those of Bate and Veterani are to be entirely broke. Advices from Rome say, that Cardinal Spinola, the Pope's Secretary of State, has frequently held private Conferences with Cardinal Alberoni in the College of the Germans; that Couriers are continually passing between the Courts of Parma and Madrid, from which latter Court some Advices intimate that Orders are given for completing all the National Regiments, and likewise for reinforcing the Swiss Corps, to which purpose Levies are diligently carried on in the Popish Swiss Cantons. Letters from Breslaw give an Account, that Sig. Grimaldi, the Pope's late Nuncio at Warlaw, was arrived at the former City, with the Auditor di Rotta, and that he would proceed in a few Days for the Court at Dresden, and from thence hither.

Paris, Sept. 10. From M. de Roth, Lieutenant General, commanding at Villefort, dated Sept. 2. Marvejols continues in a very bad Condition; since the Sickness began there it has carried off 900 Persons, and there now die 25 a Day. None have died or been ill of the Plague at Canourgue for several Days past. It has ceased at Banassac, by the Precautions used by the Parish-Priest there to make the Inhabitants lodge in Barracks. All that Part of the Gevauden towards Roerogue is infected. So is likewise the Village of Vergogneux in the Neighbourhood of the Vivaretz. That Village has 60 Houses, of which seven are infected; six Persons are dead and eight are sick there. From M. de Sauver, Syndick of the Dineys of Mende. The sudden Death of three Persons in two Days in the Town of Mende, makes it feared the Plague has got thither. From M. d'Autonne, the commanding Officer at the Line of Constat, dated Sept. 4. Within these few Days six Persons died at Avignon of a Distemper which the Physicians say would not have been minded at another time; but considering the present Circumstances of the sickly Neighbourhood, we know not what to determine yet. From M. de Pauvraignes commanding at Aix, Sept. 3. There has not been any Person ill of the Plague at Aix since the 24th of July: And the Infirmarys are all Empty. From M. le Duc first President of the Parliament of Provence, and Intendant of that Country, dated Sept. 4, and 7. Toulon grows better and better.

Madrid, Sept. 7. On the 29th Instant, their Catholick Majesties were present at the Ceremony of the Consecration of the Duke d'Abrantes, in the Church of St. Lawrence, for the Bishoprick of Cuenca, by the Archbishop of Toledo; their Majesties purposed to let out this Day to spend the Remainder of the Summer at Balfain, the rest of the Royal Family being to continue at the Escorial till the King and Queen's Return. On the 30th of the last Month, the Duke of Montellano was received into the Rank of a Grande of Spain, and the Ceremonies on that Occasion were performed the same Day, as usual. Don Gonzales Chacon having obtained the Governour's Post of Guipulcoas, is set out thither to take Possession of his Government. The Marquess de Lede is set out for Arragon, whence he is to proceed to Catalonia, and to wait there the Orders from Court concerning the Reform of the Troops. An Ordinance is newly published, forbidding under Penalty of Death, the use of Horses in carrying Merchandize about the Countries for Sale; because under that Pretext, the Horses are sold and conveyed into other Kingdoms, which Practice the Court is absolutely determined to prevent.

Paris, Sept. 24. On the 21st Instant the King gave the Hat to the Cardinal du Bois, which the Abbé Passarini brought hither on the 12th. The Letter which the King of Spain wrote lately to his most Christian Majesty, bears Date the 2d Instant at the Escorial; its Substance is as follows, viz: 'I account it the highest Pleasure, as well as the greatest Happiness, that the first Letter I sent to your Majesty should be upon a Subject so correspondent to the Ties of Blood which unites us, and the sincere Affection which I bear for your Majesty; the Sentiments suitable to my Birth, abiding with me constantly from my Infancy, and those gracious Words, full of Goodness and Wisdom, which the late King, my Grandfather was pleased to mention to me at our parting, are still deeply impressed in my Heart, and ever begetting ardent Wishes for confirming and strengthening by new Bonds that strict Union and Friendship which ought perpetually to subsist in our Royal House. God Almighty, therefore, seeming to point out the Way to that Felicity, by having given me a Daughter of Years suitable to those of your Majesty, I hope to crown the good Purposes of the King my late Grandfather, and those also of the divine Providence, gratifying also at the same time my own Tenderness, by offering to your Majesty in Marriage, as I now do, the Infanta, my Daughter, and to send her into France, to be there educated in Principles suitable to the State to which she may be called, and such as may accomplish the earnest Desires I shall always have for your Majesty's Felicity, and the Advantages of that Kingdom in which I was born, and has so greatly contributed to support me on the Throne on which it has pleased God to place me. I hope your Majesty will receive with Pleasure a Proposal of this Nature; a Proposal so agreeable to the Friendship and Consanguinity between us, and which gives me the greatest Joy imaginable, as it enables me to testify the Sincerity of my Affection towards your Majesty.

Signed PHILIP

The pleasant Odoriferous Tincture

Breath, Teeth, and Gums, a few Drops of which instantly most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming. A very short time perfectly cures, so that a disagreeable never returns: it certainly makes the blackest and most offensive teeth extremely white, clean and beautiful at once using, it also preserves them from decaying, and chafes a little decay'd from new, absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, tho' never so severe, exciting the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almost entirely gone away, and infallibly fastens loose Teeth so admirably in a Word, for most delicately perfuming and quickly curing all scented Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly fastening them when loose, and equally preserving them from rotting or decaying, and assuredly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it is not its Equal in the World. Is now only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, near Arundel House, Price 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
